Report

A Seminar on "Latex Software: An Overview" was successfully organized by the Research and Development Cell of J.C. Bose University of Science and Technology, YMCA, Faridabad on February 8 and 9, 2023.

Dr. Suraj Goyal, Assistant Professor in the Department of Mathematics was the resource person. Prof. Naresh Chauhan, Director (R&D) facilitated Dr. Suraj with a sapling. Dr. Suraj gave information about the basics of Latex software including article writing. He also provided hands-on training on thesis writing and beamer presentation using Latex. More than 100 participants including faculty and students benefited from the seminar. The seminar was conducted and coordinated by Dr. Sonia, Event Coordinator (R&D), and Dr. Rajeev Saha, Deputy Director (R&D).
