F'BAD VARSITY TO STUDENTS' AID

Faridabad: The JC Bose University of Science and Technology, YMCA, Faridabad, has offered an interest-free soft loan facility to the deserving students by providing them the tuition fee amount. The university has invited applications from students for interest-free soft loan by January 25. VC Prof Dinesh Kumar said the policy intends to give relief to the students in the wake of Covid. After the completion of the course, as and when, the student will get the job then he or she would have to repay the loan amount. The university would also assist them in getting a job, he added. Initially, the fund for this initiative is being borne jointly by the university and MOB - the alumni association of the university, he added. Under the policy, up to 100 per cent of financial aid will be provided to students on a case-to-case basis, to the satisfaction of authority.
