Report on Prayas Project (26.03.23)

NSS JCBUST, YMCA in collaboration with NGO Nanhi Udaan organized a drive of their ongoing project PRAYAS. It is an effort aimed at feeding stray animals to tackle the pressing issue of animal hunger and malnutrition. With a determination to help the animals fight for their survival, the volunteers gathered and put in their tireless efforts to feed food, water and other essentials to these animals regularly.

The project was conducted in Faridabad. The following volunteers were working in this project:
