Report on Blockchain Workshop(19.10.2022)

NSS Cell conducted its first BLOCKCHAIN WORKSHOP in collaboration with Google Developer Students Club (GDSC), JCBUST, YMCA, with guest of honour Mr. Ankit Sharma (Alumni, Blockchain developer @Webmob software solutions).

Blockchain is a really exciting technology as it actually provides both transparency and agility in contractual relationship that any organization should have.

The workshop was open to all interested and participants were taught about Blockchain from the scratch. An E- certificate was also provided in the end to all those who attended the workshop. The event was fruitful and progressed smoothly. The number of volunteers were 10+.
