

University Level National Environment Youth Parliament - NEYP 2026

The University Level National Environment Youth Parliament (NEYP) 2026 was organized by Department of Environmental Sciences and Vasundhara Eco Club of J.C. Bose University of Science and Technology, YMCA, Faridabad, on 29th October 2025 under the aegis of Students for Development and Paryavaran Sanrakshan Gatividhi. The theme of the event was “Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam: Green Youth Leadership for Planetary Resilience and Sustainable Civilization,” reflecting the idea of global unity and collective responsibility towards environmental sustainability. The event was held under the guidance of Vice-Chancellor Prof. Rajive Kumar and Dean Faculty of Sciences Prof. Anuradha Sharma, who emphasized the importance of youth-led initiatives in addressing global environmental challenges.

The program aimed to engage students in meaningful discussions on environmental issues, sustainable policy making, and global ecological resilience. Dr. Renuka Gupta, Chairperson of Department of Environmental Sciences and Nodal Officer of Vasundhara Eco Club, inspired participants with her words, “Youth are the torchbearers of change. By integrating innovation with environmental responsibility, they can transform the vision of sustainability into reality.” Participants were evaluated by an esteemed panel of judges, Dr. Neha Goyal (Associate Professor, MBA), Dr. Rahul Arya (Assistant Professor, CMT), Dr. Vishal Puri (Assistant Professor, Civil Engineering), Ms. Mamta Bansal (Assistant Professor, Literature & Linguistic Studies) and Mr. Sahil Kaushik, national level winner of NEYP 2025. The event was coordinated by Dr. Anita Girdhar and Dr. Sushma, Assistant Professor, EVS.
