A total of 9 teams, each consisting of three students of B Com participated in the event, with great zeal and enthusiasm. The event aimed to encourage knowledge sharing, critical thinking, and team collaboration among participants. It was also designed to promote healthy competition while enhancing students' awareness of current events, business knowledge, and general trivia.

The key objectives of the quiz competition were to stimulate intellectual curiosity and awareness among students; Encourage learning beyond the classroom, current affairs; Foster teamwork and collaboration through group-based competition; Offer a fun yet educational experience that aligns with the Department's mission of promoting critical thinking and practical knowledge.

The event consisted of 4 rounds which were based on no-elimination basis:

Round 1: Identify the Tagline and Logo:

In this round, participants were shown logos of various companies along with their taglines. The teams were asked to correctly identify the brand associated with each logo and tagline. This round tested the participants' knowledge of popular brands and their marketing slogans.

Round 2: Identify the Entrepreneur:

This round focused on famous entrepreneurs from various industries. Teams were presented with clues related to a renowned entrepreneur's career, achievements, and business ventures. Participants had to identify the entrepreneur based on these clues, which tested their knowledge of influential figures in business.

Round 3: Current Affairs:

These round featured questions related to recent developments in business, economics, and global events. Questions ranged from government policies to international business trends. The round encouraged participants to stay up-to-date with ongoing affairs and understand their implications on the business world.

Round 4: Identify the Advertisements Through Jingles:

In the final round, participants were played jingles from well-known advertisements, and they had to identify the brand or product associated with the jingle. This round tested participants' memory of iconic advertisements and their recognition of audio and visual branding.

After an intense and engaging series of rounds, team “The Brainstormers” were declared as the winners of the quiz competition. The winners received certificates and trophies, for their excellent performance.

The quiz competition organized by the Department of Business Studies proved to be a successful event, fostering academic engagement and providing students with an opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge in a fun and competitive setting. The event was well-received, with participants and attendees expressing satisfaction with both the format and the content of the competition. The Department intends to continue organizing such events to promote holistic learning, critical thinking, and teamwork among students.
