Brief Summary of the Activity

EthicCraft Club Conducted a "Seminar" on Anti-ragging in Collaboration with Proctor Committee

Date: August 8, 2023

Time: 10:00 AM

Venue: Auditorium, JC Bose Ust

- Introduction:

The seminar on anti-ragging organized by the EthicCraft Club in collaboration with the Proctor Committee took place on August 8, 2023, at Auditorium within the premises of JC Bose Ust. The seminar aimed to address the critical issue of ragging and promote awareness and prevention strategies among university students.

- Speaker:

The esteemed speaker for the seminar was Mr. Anshul Sinha, the founder of TechnyGrow and an entrepreneur expert. Mr. Sinha brought his vast knowledge and experience in the field of entrepreneurship to shed light on the importance of fostering a healthy and respectful environment within educational institutions.

- Target Audience:

The primary audience for the seminar consisted of university students from various disciplines. The organizers aimed to engage with students directly affected by or concerned about ragging and its consequences.

- Seminar Highlights:

The seminar commenced at 10:00 AM, with an opening address by a representative from the EthicCraft Club, emphasizing the club's commitment to promoting ethical behavior and a safe learning environment. This was followed by an introduction to the guest speaker, Mr. Anshul Sinha, who shared his insights on the impact of ragging on an individual's mental and emotional well-being, academic performance, and overall personality development.

Mr. Sinha delved into the entrepreneurial mindset and how fostering a positive environment is crucial for personal and professional growth. He highlighted how a culture of respect and collaboration contributes not only to academic success but also to building strong, capable leaders for the future.

The seminar featured interactive sessions, video presentations, and real-life case studies, engaging the audience and fostering meaningful discussions. Students shared their experiences, concerns, and ideas on how to combat ragging effectively. Mr. Sinha's engaging and inspiring presentation resonated with the attendees, capturing their attention and encouraging them to actively participate in the event.

- Success of the Seminar:

The seminar turned out to be a resounding success, with a strong turnout of students from across the university. The interactive nature of the event kept the audience engaged, and the valuable insights provided by Mr. Sinha generated thought-provoking discussions. Students left the seminar with a renewed commitment to upholding ethical behavior and taking a stand against ragging.

- Conclusion:

The seminar on anti-ragging organized by the EthicCraft Club in collaboration with the Proctor Committee was an impactful event that effectively highlighted the significance of maintaining a respectful and safe academic environment. Mr. Anshul Sinha's expertise and inspirational insights left a lasting impression on the attendees, motivating them to actively contribute to creating a positive campus culture.

- Closing Ceremony:

The seminar concluded with a closing ceremony where Proctor [Proctor's Name] expressed gratitude to Mr. Anshul Sinha for his valuable contribution. As a token of appreciation, a sapling was presented to Mr. Sinha, symbolizing the growth and nurturing of a safe and ethical campus community.

The success of this seminar reinforces the commitment of both the EthicCraft Club and the Proctor Committee to address pressing issues and foster a culture of respect, empathy, and cooperation within the university environment.
