NOTICE

Sub : Regarding using of Pirated Software

It is informed that the Computer software is protected by international copyright laws from the date of its creation. Such laws grant the owner of the copyright the exclusive rights to reproduce & distribute copies of its software. It is illegal to install purchased software onto more than one computer, or to make the copies of the software for any purpose, unless specific permission has been obtained from copyright owner or otherwise permitted in the license accompanying the software.

In the light of above, the following is being brought to the notice of all concerned:

- Computer software is defined as a literary work, and therefore is protected by a copyright.
- No one is exempted from copyright law. All individuals, organizations, and government agencies are subjected to the law.
- Ignorance of the law does not excuse infringement.

Therefore, It is advised to all the staff and students not to bring /install/ use any illegal software on the university's system or his/her system, otherwise disciplinary action will be taken against him. The University shall not hold any kind of responsibility for the same.
