REPORT SUMMARY

JC Bose University organized a One Day Workshop on Challenges for Early-Stage Entrepreneurs

Institution Innovation Council (IIC) of J C Bose University of Science and Technology, YMCA, Faridabad, in association with the Department of Chemistry & Department of Environment Sciences organized One Day Workshop cum Panel Discussion on “Angel Investment and Funding Opportunities for Early-Stage Entrepreneurs”. As many as 90 students from the MSc (Chemistry & Environment Sciences), BSc Mathematics, and PhD Scholars from sciences participated in the event.

Dr. Anurag introduced the speakers and asked students to feel free to raise their queries related to the leadership qualities, challenges, and funding opportunities for becoming a successful entrepreneur and initiating a start-up. Prof. Chahal emphasized three I-I-I i.e. Idea, Innovation, and Implementation, and urged students to know the requirement of society in the context of 21st Century with the valued weightage to the tradition/innovations of our country. Dr. Pushendra Singh put forward various checks and fake concepts related to start-ups and discussed various aspects of start-ups, especially sharing of market value, the role of the founder in the success of the start-up, and equity, etc. Dr. Singh accentuated on clean business strategies to pay taxes on time with proper maintenance of the balance sheet for not only the growth of start-ups and increase in market value but also to pay their due to society back through government policies. Dr. Somvir highlighted the role of environmental issues, health ecosystems, and rural versus urbanization to capture the market related to real problems for start-up ideas. Mr. Abhishek, Assistant Professor in Mathematics mentioned students that mathematical modelling of data available and predictions is a key part of start-ups for their success as well as to attract investors.

Prof. S.K. Tomar, the Vice-Chancellor, praised the initiative taken by IIC to organize such events to motivate them to shape their idea toward a good start-up. He encouraged members of the innovation council to motivate students toward innovation and entrepreneurship and wish to have the incubation of more fruitful start-ups. Prof. Neetu Gupta, Dean Faculty of Science gave full assurance to the students to help out in the conceptualization of their ideas towards start-ups. Dr. Ranuka Gupta (Incharge, EVS) and Dr. Ravi Kumar (Incharge, Chemistry) extended their full support for the activity.

The President of IIC, Dr. Sanjeev Goyal, and the Convener of IIC, Dr. Sapna Taneja, extended sincere thanks to both speakers for providing valuable support and sharing their expertise towards start-up and entrepreneurship.
